First-Year Regular students

(BA / B.Sc / Biotech/ Comp.Sci./ BMM/ Bioanalytical Sci. B.Voc)

- Semester II Examination will not be conducted for First-Year Regular Students.
- All the students of first year will be promoted to the second year.
- The results of the first-year students will consider 50% weightage to the internal evaluation of the second semester and the remaining 50% weightage based on performance in the previous semester. (Semester I)

- Internal Exam 50 % marks(Semester II) + Previous sem. 50% marks(Semester I) = Sem. II Result (For all First Year students)
- If a student fails in some of the courses under the above-mentioned marking system for the current/even semester, the student will appear for the 100 mark examination within 120days after the college reopens.
- If a student is not satisfied with his/her marks obtained as per average (50-50%) and wishes to improve it, he/she can appear within 120 days after the college reopens.
- Students note that this promotion to the second year is only for the academic year (2019-2020) under the exceptional circumstances of Covid-19.

Second Year Regular Students

(S.Y.BA/ B.Sc / Biotech/ Comp.Sci / BMM/ Bioanalytical Sci / B.Voc)

- Students will be promoted to the Third year.
- The total marks out of 100 will be calculated in two ways (60 mark end semester exam has been conducted before lockdown.)

(1) Internal 50% marks + Previous sem. 50% marks = Sem. IV Results as per

(50-50 %) gradation formula .

(2) Internal marks + Sem .IV (after Assessment of papers marks) = Sem IV Result .

- The “Best of the Two” marks thus calculated from 1 and 2 will be considered as the final marks for that course.
- If a student fails in any subject of the even semester(IV) due to average or previously obtained marks, he/she will have to appear for examination within 120 days after the college reopens
- If a student is not satisfied with his/her marks obtained as per average (50-50%) then he/she can appear again for the examination for “improvement” within 120 days after the college reopens.
- Students having ATKT / Cross ATKT in previous years (i.e. Semester-I, Semester-II, or Semester-III) will also be promoted to Third Year . They required to clear the unsuccessful subject/s in the ATKT Examination within 120 days after the college reopens
