

Date: - 14/11/2024

NOTICE

The students of FYBA/BSC/BACM/BVoc of 2024-25 are required to note that the online examination of Indian Knowledge System- IKS (2 credits- 50 marks) scheduled to be held on 15th November 2024, has been postponed till further notice. The students will receive an email for mock test and they can practice the exam. But those marks will not be counted.

Please note that:

- Their online final examination of this course will be held by SPPU.
- The window for examination will be open through the entire exam day and students can appear for the exam from any location.
- But students will get ONLY ONE attempt to give their examination.
- The SPPU portal will upload an announcement for the same.
- The students are also required to complete the required mid-term assignments as they proceed with the Course, to be declared successful in the same Course.

IKS Exam schedule will be update on college website.