

Social
Entrepreneurship,
Vision and Adaptability

S.E.V.A

Panel Discussion

People from different cultures, nations and ethnicity came together to help each other out in this pandemic. From making large donations to tasting massive survival crisis the fittest of all had survived, quite literally. But every crisis brings along an opportunity. Thus, taking inspiration from the opportunities that arose during the times of COVID and the changing trends in entrepreneurship, we at Elixir 2021, bring to you a panel discussion - Social Entrepreneurship, Vision and Adaptability, for the young entrepreneurial talent!
Swipe left to meet the prestigious panel!

SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP,
VISION AND ADAPTABILITY

Debparna Pratiher
Social Entrepreneur

Advait Dandwate
Vardhishnu founder

Karan Jerath
Forbes' 30 under 30, co-founder of
Karton

Date- 3rd January 2021

Time- 6:30 PM IST | 1:00 PM GMT

OUR PANELISTS

Karan Jerath

Karan Jerath is the youngest member on the 2016 Forbes' 30 Under 30 Energy List and is the co-founder of KARTON, a social good transportation company in Zambia, Africa.

OUR PANELISTS

Debparna Pratiher

Currently working on a social e-commerce platform startup for Gen Z and finishing masters at Carnegie Mellon university. Debparna has worked in product management and software roles in Nvidia, Tesla, kleiner Perkins and is very passionate about helping increase women in tech and business!

OUR PANELISTS

Adwait Dandwate

Adwait founded Vardhishnu, a non-profit based out of Jalgaon, provides a safe, secure and happy childhood to street children, especially waste pickers and child labours, with 300+ children successfully enrolled in academics and 100+ children out of the child labour.